

Year 7 Extra English Curriculum Snake

- What is it to be human – human identity?
- Celebrating difference
- Dual identities: being part human and part vampire
- The supernatural / gothic / other world / fate
- Moral conflict
- Loneliness and friendship

A creative writing task

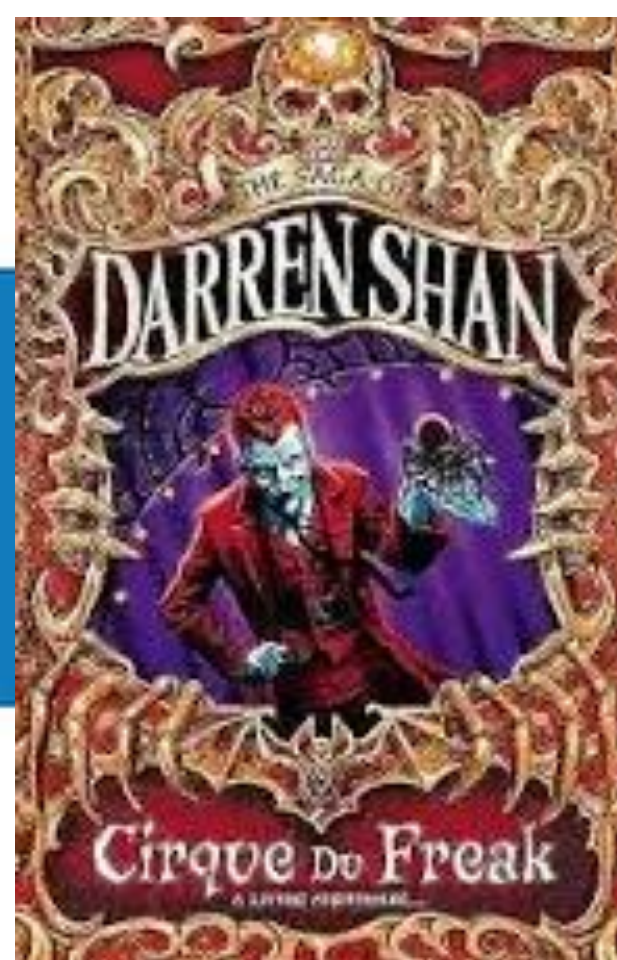

- Writing 1 ½ sides of A4
- Accuracy and variety
- Showing a moment in a story, not telling spelling

Common homophones
Pluralising
dge / ge / gi / gy el and le tch
soft cy, ci, ce words

summarise

clarify

punctuation

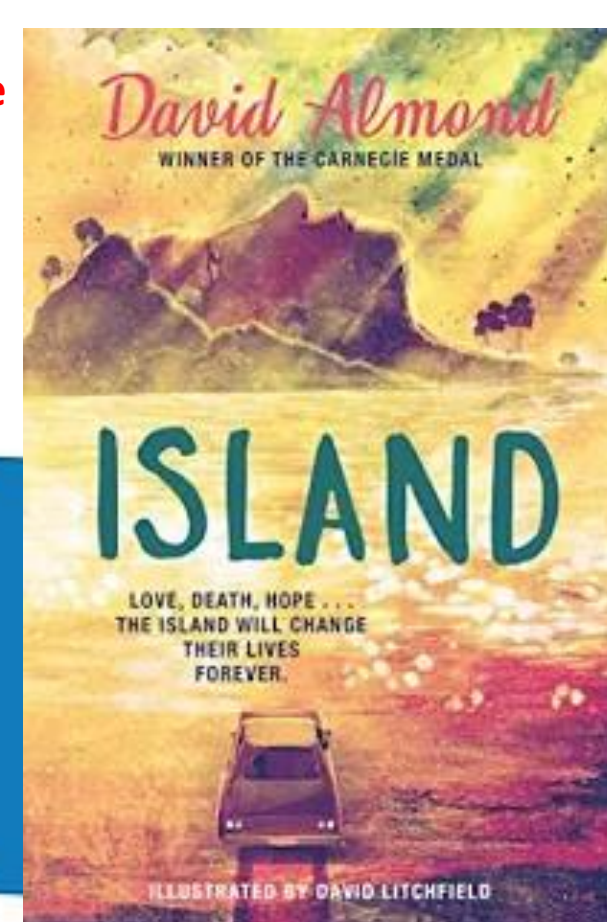

Basic sentence punctuation: full stops, questions marks, commas and punctuation of direct speech predict

question

A creative writing task

clarify

summarise

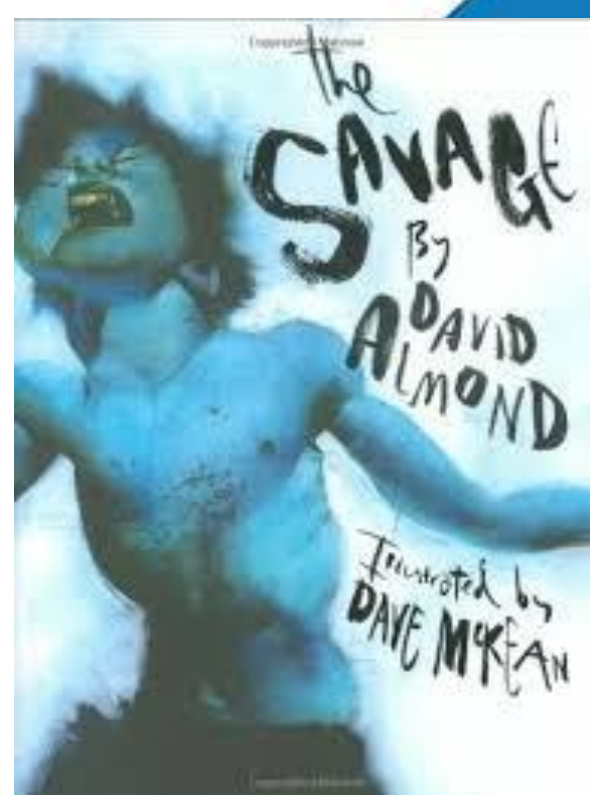

Identifying nouns, verbs, auxiliary verbs, adjectives and adverbs word types

summarise

clarify

A creative writing task

question

predict

- A split identity / alter ego
- The emotional / personal self and civilised social self
- Inner conflict and social conflict
- Forming a viewpoint through narrating / creating our own stories
- Bringing worlds and perspectives together

predict

A creative writing task

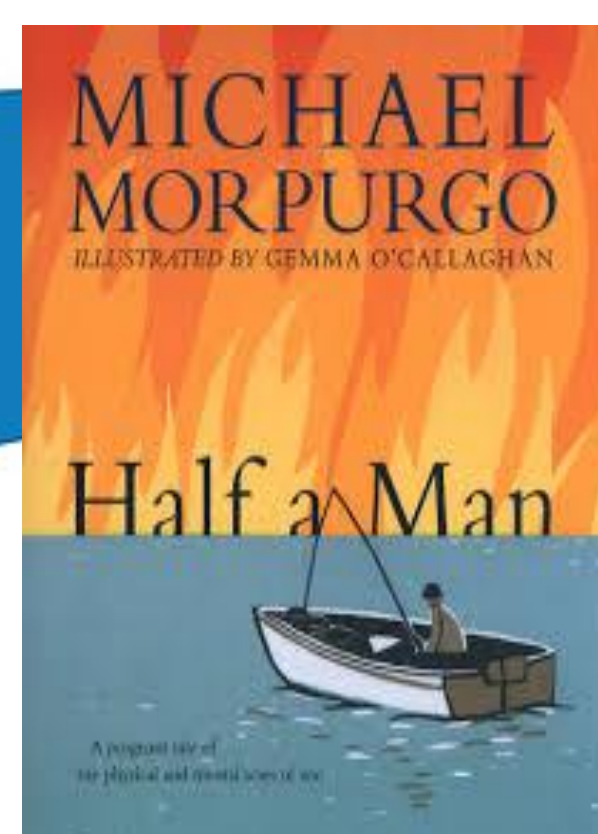

sentence types

What is a sentence?

basic sentence demarcation: full stops, capitals, question/ exclamation marks sentence types: declarative, imperatives, interrogatives, exclamatory simple and compound sentences

summarise

clarify

question

predict

Letters and Sounds

short and long vowel sounds CVCe words diphthongs: oo, au/aw, ao, ee, ai,ea, ow/ou, oy/oi, vowel-vowel split

phonics

- Physical conflict and war
- The link between appearance and sense of identity
- Identity, trauma and conflict
- The link between the generations by understanding each other's stories
- Society's viewpoint
- Bringing worlds and perspectives together

The Language Carousel

- Identities are layered and complex
- Identities are made from our inner 'nature' and outer 'nurture'
- Identities are formed and changed as a result experiences in the social world
- Our identities reflect our viewpoints
- As a result of different experiences, identities and viewpoints differ