

Year 8 Extra English Curriculum Snake

- What is it to be human – human identity?
- Using the imagination and creativity to explore identity
- Overcoming challenges and character development
- The celebration of fantasy, others worlds and spirituality
- Inner conflict
- Different viewpoints

A creative writing task

- Writing 1 ½ sides of A4
- Accuracy and variety
- Showing a moment in a story, not telling spelling

- sion, -cian, -tion –ssion
- ible and –able
- cial and –tial
- doubling the consonant

summarise

clarify

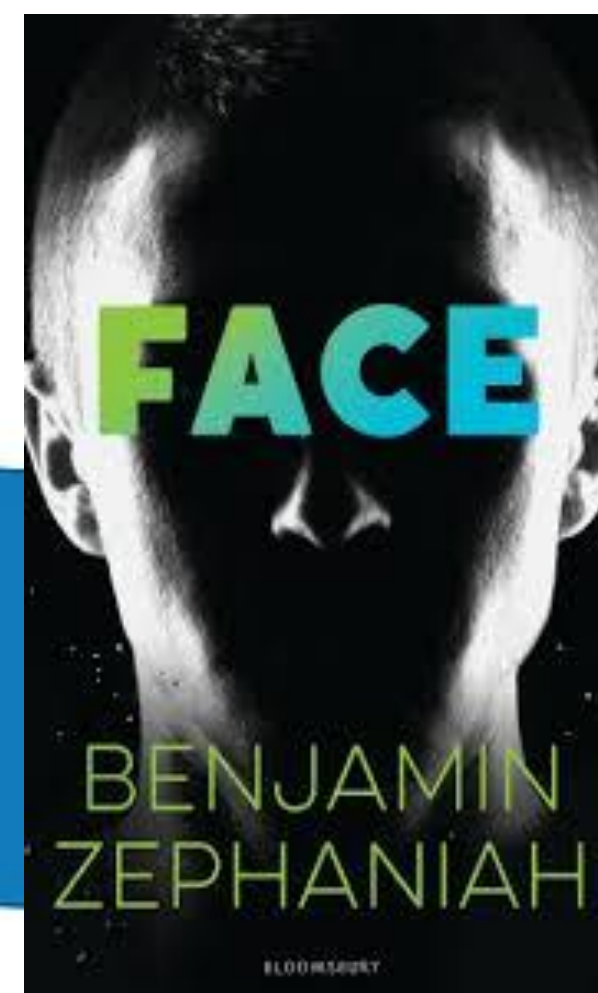

punctuation

Using the comma and the apostrophe correctly Using commas, brackets and dashes for parenthesis

summarise

clarify

A creative writing task

- Identity, appearance and self image
- Friendship and loneliness
- Prejudice and difference
- Change in identity and character development

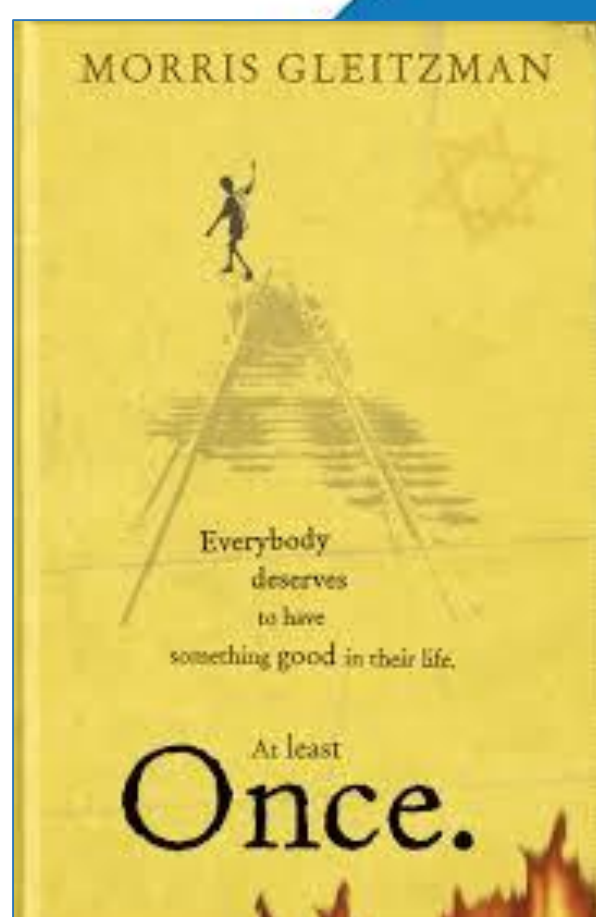

A creative writing task

summarise

clarify

question

predict

word types

The past, present and future Adjectives modifying nouns Verb tense and agreement Using adverbs

- World War II and conflict
- Personal identity and experience
- The family – and different types of it
- Perception and viewpoint, bias, subjectivity and revelation
- Character development and understanding

question

predict

Common prefixes Latin and Greek root words language roots

A creative writing task

- Group identity and the impact on individuals
- Society, division and unequal power
- Physical conflict and a dystopian world
- Perspective, viewpoint and prejudice
- Unity, togetherness and overcoming difference

summarise

clarify

question

predict

What is a sentence?

Sentence types: declarative, imperatives, interrogatives, exclamatory Stretching sentences Simple, compound and complex sentences sentence types

- Identities are layered and complex
- Identities are made from our inner 'nature' and outer 'nurture'
- Identities are formed and changed as a result experiences in the social world
- Our identities reflect our viewpoints
- As a result of different experiences, identities and viewpoints differ